AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

sown as soon as it will go through the drill. It may be treated in the evening and sowing begun early the next morning. Some farmers treat in the evening what they can sow the following forenoon and in the morning what they can sow in the afternoon. Small lots are more easily and thoroughly treated and there is less danger of loss in case rainy weather should delay seeding.

Wheat may be treated by the sprinkling formaldehyde method or, if very smutty, by the soaking and skimming method. Directions may be obtained from the county agent or from the Agricultural College Extension Service of the Ohio State University.

Don't Delay Home Canning.

The United States Department of Agriculture again urges housekeepers not to neglect nor delay home canning, drying, and preserving. Fruit, sugar, and containers may be expensive, but even at the prices being charged for them a saving in household expenses can probably be made by filling the pantry shelves while there is an opportunity to do so. There is no indication that the usual margin of difference in cost to the consumer of home and commercial products will be lessened. Moreover, a well-stocked pantry now assures a more varied, attractive, and wholesome diet next winter.

Home demonstration agents and club leaders of the department and the State agricultural colleges will give all possible assistance. Housekeepers who desire copies of the department's canning directions, may obtain them immediately and without cost by addressing the Division of Publications of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. Canning directions may also be obtained in many cases from the State agricultural colleges.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Many West Perrysburg people have used them and know how effective they are. Here's a West Perrysburg case.

Mrs. Caroline E. Walters, Sixth and Cherry Sts., W., gave the following statement July 20, 1905: "Sharp pains in my back would often shoot up through my shoulders. When the attacks came on I could hardly get up from a chair and there was a dull, tiring ache in my back most all the time. I had frequent spells of dizziness and suffered with headaches, too. I was miserable until I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. Doan's relieved me promptly, and after I had taken them awhile my back felt as though it had never been lame. I could sleep soundly and had no more headaches, dizzy spells or other symptoms of kidney trouble."

GONE FOR GOOD.

On March 10, 1917, Mrs. Walters said: "It is a pleasure to again recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are a wonderful remedy. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since Doan's cured me many years ago."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Walters had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS

source of pleasure and enjoyment for the wives and daughters of the members of the Saengerbund.

For many weeks after the Saengerbund got into its new home the interest and enthusiasm of the members in the organization was unflagging and remarkable. Then gradually, little by little, hardly noticeable at first, some of the members began to be slack in their attendance at rehearsals and other meetings of the association. Dissensions began to creep in where heretofore all had been harmony, the membership having always placed the good of the entire organization ahead of the personal desires of any one of its members. One by one some of the leading members of the association remained away from its meetings, failed to attend the rehearsals, and in some cases withdrew from the membership entirely. Several who had at one time or another failed in their ambition to become officers or recognized leaders, seemed to lose track of the fact that the first and most important part toward the real success of any musical organization is perfect harmony—in more ways than one. Nowhere in the wide world will discord make itself known and felt as quickly as in a musical association. However, discord began to replace harmony, with the inevitable result. It was the immortal President Lincoln who said: "United we stand; divided we fall." A house divided against itself can not stand, but must soon crumble to the earth. And this was verified in our little town in the case of the Perrysburg Saengerbund.

Just when this one-time strong Saengerbund made its last appearance before the public as a musical organization the writer does not remember. During its existence it several times attended and took part in the State Saengerfest at Toledo, where were gathered similar organizations from nearly all parts of the State, and performed its part in a creditable manner on each occasion. They also several times attended the gatherings of German singing societies in the nearby cities and towns, and at each they did their part of the program with much credit to the association. The Saengerbund were the owners of a very fine grand piano, and this instrument was disposed of in a raffle, there being several thousand tickets disposed of.

Their building, known as Saengerbund Hall, was disposed of to the Lutheran Church organization, and after a thorough remodeling to make it suitable for church services, was used by this congregation for many years until it was removed to make way for the handsome church edifice which now occupies that prominent corner.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All druggists, 75c.
